4. An installation lightly occupied by KVP personnel was located on Gross-berliner Damm in Berlin-Johannisthal, immediately near the Lova Plant. From 80 to 100 soldiers who wore light red collar patches were seen. No heavy weapons were observed. [redacted] left the installation.³

5. No noteworthy observations were made at the former HVS quarters in Niederschoeneweide. None of the houses on Karlshorster Strasse quartered KVP units. Two KVP guards without collar patches were seen on the bank of the Spree River. [redacted] was seen on Schneller Strasse.

6. At 9:30 p.m. on 4 August, a KVP troop train of about 20 boxcars loaded with personnel and flatcars loaded with 30 trucks proceeded through Neustrelitz toward Berlin.⁴

7. On 4 August, heavy traffic by KVP soldiers who wore blue or yellow-bordered black collar patches was observed near the installation on Rudower Chaussee. The guard at the installation wore dark red collar patches. [redacted]

[redacted] The building opposite the installation was also guarded by a VP who wore dark red collar patches. A strikingly large number of young KVP soldiers who wore light red collar patches were seen at an other KVP billets on Rudower Chaussee close to the Adlershof railroad station. Several temporary buildings and former hangars were seen on the premises of this building.²

8. [redacted] 20 trucks, 1 kitchen tent and 6 field kitchens at the barracks installation on Geschwister Scholl Strasse near the Friedrich Strasse elevated train station. [redacted] entered the installation. [redacted] only 10 trucks at the installation. [redacted] 18 trucks, 2 kitchen tents and 5 field kitchens.²

9. On 4 and 6 August, East Berlin, particularly the vicinity of railroad and barracks installations were heavily patrolled by the KVP. The Adlershof, Schoeneweide, Baumschulenweg and Treptower-Park elevated train stations were guarded by one KVP soldier and a member of the East Berlin municipal police each.

10. On 6 August, a KVP unit was detrained at Magerviehhof in Friedrichsfelde-Ost. Thirty-five trucks, 4 tank trucks with trailers, 9 cross-country vehicles and about 60 ammunition boxes were unloaded on ramp No 1; and 4 companies were detrained at ramp No 2. Four field kitchens which had arrived by the same train were put in operation. [redacted]

1. [redacted] Comment. Information on units of Armeegruppe Nord committed in East Berlin was transmitted previously. It appears that units of Division Prenzlau were relieved by units of Division Prora in early August. [redacted]
